REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Angel Oak Elementary School is located on John's Island, a beautiful sea island approximately 15 miles outside of the historic city of Charleston, SC. The school is composed of dedicated and creative faculty and staff members. The school is led by our principal, Ms. La'Toya Thomas-Dixon.

We currently serve students in Child Development through fifth grade. We are proud of the many accomplishments made this school year. Angel Oak is continuing to achieve success in and out of the classrooms. Our school has been recognized as an Honor Roll Reading School in association with Governor Mark Sanford's office. In addition, a group of Kiawah and Seabrook Island volunteers invested time every Thursday afternoon to provide an innovative, extended-day golf program for third grade students. An after-school program was established with an enrollment of 188 students in grades 1-5, which is an increase of 108 students from the previous year. Finally, St. John's High School teacher cadets volunteered weekly to assist teachers and students in all grades. Ms. Thomas-Dixon, along with Ms. Gibbs-Palmer, School Improvement Chair, collaborate to develop a positive learning environment for the students. We thank the parents and students for helping in this endeavor.

As always, we encourage you to visit our school and invest time and interest in our students. Together the world is ours to explore.

La'Toya Thomas-Dixon, Principal
Edrastine Gibbs-Palmer, School Improvement Chair
