REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Grassy Pond had a very successful year in 2007-2008. Administration, teachers and staff, students, parents, and community worked cooperatively to accomplish many things.

By prioritizing literacy, students improved in all subjects across the curriculum. Through assessment practices, such as Dominie and analysis of MAP data, teachers set reasonable academic goals for students, made wise instructional decisions, and saw increases in MAP scores and classroom performances for all students. With a continued emphasis of technology through the use of document cameras, Promethean Boards, and CPS units, students enjoyed and participated in daily activities and teachers offered innovative and differentiated instruction.

The School Improvement Council met regularly to complete a School Renewal Plan, while the Parent Teacher Organization continued to raise money for classroom materials and supplies, field trips, and technology.

Mr. Ryan Godfrey was named Teacher of the Year, and Mrs. Jan Lowry was named Distinguished Teacher of Reading.

The students continued to demonstrate service to others by raising more than $5000 for St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Cherokee County Children's Home, March of Dimes, and Relay for Life.

Mrs. Nanette A. Ruppe, Principal
Mrs. Crissy Swofford, SIC Chair
