Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Merrywood Elementary School has made vast improvements in closing the gap in academic achievement by raising our improvement rating from an Unsatisfactory in 2006 to a Good in 2007 and 2008. We were also the only school in our district to meet annual yearly progress in 2008. Additionally, we recently received the "Red Carpet Award," which recognizes customer friendly schools. Our accomplishments are largely due to excellent parental support and the dedication of our teachers and support staff in the areas of school-wide implementation of balanced literacy, MAP (Measurement of Academic Progress) data disaggregation, and the implementation of LIFELONG Guidelines and LIFESKILLS, a character education program.

The use of leveled texts for small group guided reading instruction in English/Language Arts along with whole group shared reading, interactive read alouds, and writing have proven to increase students' reading level abilities. Small group guided reading instruction focuses on each student's individual instructional reading level and skill need. Many of our teachers use the shared reading and interactive read aloud strategies to instruct cross curricular by focusing on science and/or social studies standards during their instruction. Daily writing instruction also helps to promote reading skills through active participation on the part of the students.

Students are given the MAP test three times each year. Teachers use the test results to drive instruction by identifying strengths and weaknesses in the areas of math and English/Language Arts. Students are placed in guided reading groups based on their need in literal texts, informational texts, and building vocabulary. Students are remediated in mathematics through small group instruction based on their abilities in numbers and operations, algebra, geometry, measurement, and data analysis. Through collaboration, our teachers identify those students who have the greatest need and then "share" them across grade levels. Also, through data disaggregation, identified students are placed in a weekly academic after school program.

Merrywood has implemented a character education program from the Susan Kovalik institute. This character education program builds a strong school community through the emphasis of eighteen LIFELONG guidelines and LIFESKILLS. These eighteen character traits are taught and implemented throughout the school year. In an effort to increase our home-school relationships, we provide weekly information to the parents pertaining to the LIFESKILLS as well as monthly instructional calendars that contain vital academic information and upcoming events.

Through the efforts of the committed and involved parents, capable and eager students, and dedicated instructional and support staff at Merrywood Elementary, students are given numerous opportunities to learn and grow as readers, writers, scientists, historians, and mathematicians. It is very evident to the Greenwood community and beyond that the Merrywood faculty and staff, parents, and students are "One for All and All for One."
