Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Spartanburg High School and, more specifically, the Class of 2010 continued to distinguish itself in academics, athletics, and the arts. The instructional program is synonymous with providing a firm foundation that colleges and universities across the nation desire. SHS continues to be annually recognized by "Newsweek" magazine as one of the top high schools in the country for its outstanding Advanced Placement program. It has been a stellar year for Spartanburg High School, with 91 College Board AP scholars, two Presidential Scholar candidates, and merit scholarships totaling over $16 million over a four year college career, eclipsing the previous record.

The Class of 2010 has distinguished itself with 8 seniors being recognized by the National Merit competitions for being among the top scorers in the nation on the PSAT. Six students went on to be finalists. Additionally, 128 seniors qualified to earn a $5,000 LIFE scholarship. Thirty-one seniors were recognized as Palmetto Fellows Scholarship winners. Six seniors scored a perfect 800 on the Math, Verbal, or Writing sections of the PSAT and/or SAT I or on a subject test of the SAT II.

Spartanburg High School was also recognized by the South Carolina State Department of Education as a Palmetto Silver award winner for increased student achievement. Additionally, SHS was recognized as a Red Carpet School.

Our fine arts and athletic programs continued to excel and perform at a high level. Orchestra, band, and chorus received superior ratings at the state competitions. The South Carolina High School League recognized 57 seniors as athlete-scholars for having a 3.5 grade point ratio or higher. A total of 25 athletes were named to all region and/or all state teams.
