REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Hilton Head Island High School continued its tradition of excellence in meeting the needs of all students during the 2010-2011 school year. The International Baccalaureate Programme remained the passion of Hilton Head Island High School. All stakeholders at HHIHS were focused on increasing student participation in International Baccalaureate (IB) classes and growing the Middle Years Programme (MYP). IB curriculum enrollment continued to increase, particularly with our Hispanic population. Administration and faculty organized its first HHIHS Marketing Day to inform local business leaders and community members about how the IB curriculum benefits both students and the local community. Also, every faculty member participated in intensive MYP training as we prepared for our MYP Authorization visit. In order to better serve students who struggle academically, all faculty attended professional development focused on the tenets of Ruby Payne's approach to understanding the effects of poverty on student achievement. Also, we hosted our first Parent University, a day-long series of workshops designed to help our students' parents and guardians be better informed on the issues that affect their children's education.

The Hilton Head Island High School community is proud of many accomplishments this year. We were honored to be selected as a semi-finalist for the Palmetto's Finest Award, and we also were commended by The Washington Post as the fourth best high school in South Carolina. The High Schools That Work Technical Assistance Visiting Team recognized us for all the extra tutoring and support systems we offer our students. We also received our second Red Carpet Award for 2010-2013. Our students achieved great success academically, applying for fourteen IB Diplomas and earning sixteen Palmetto Fellow Scholarships, sixty-nine Life Scholarships, thirty-five Hope Scholarships and three Heritage Classic Foundation Scholarships. Additionally, HHIHS students continued to excel in extra-curricular activities. We were awarded the South Carolina Athletic Director's Cup with team state championships in Girls' Tennis, Girls' Swimming, Boys' Cross Country, Boys' Track and Girls' Soccer, as well as individual state championships in wrestling, swimming and track and region titles for eleven teams. Sixteen students participated in Beaufort All-County Band, and eight students participated in All-Region Band. Our NJROTC program was selected for the NJROTC Unit Achievement Award based on exceptional performance. Our students were recognized for excellent work through Model UN, Interact, and numerous honor societies, and thirty-one of our advanced performing arts students were selected to perform at Carnegie Hall in New York City during the Easter holidays.

All stakeholders at Hilton Head Island High School are proud of the successes of the 2010-2011 school year.
