REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Although this narrative is included in the school report card which will be sent out during the 2013-2014 school year, it reflects the accomplishments and activities from the 2012-2013 school year. Thus, you will see the name of the retired principal, Mr. John Huggins, at the end of the narrative rather than the name of the currently active principal, Mr. Isaac McClinton.

The attendance area for Crestwood is very diverse, including rural areas, suburbs, and Shaw Air Force Base. To meet the needs of our varied stakeholders, we offer a wide range of courses to prepare students for life after high school, whether they are making the transition into higher education or directly into the workplace.

In addition to course offerings, we provide career guidance, special tutorials, and a variety of co-curricular activities to enhance the Crestwood experience for our students. Qualified junior and senior students are offered the opportunity to participate in dual enrollment courses on our campus through the University of South Carolina-Sumter, giving the students the opportunity to graduate from high school having already earned college credits.

Crestwood teachers participate in a wide variety of staff development activities during the year in order to provide the best possible learning experiences for our students. Our students have gained recognition through competitions on the local, state, national, and international levels, winning awards in academics as well as co-curricular and athletic activities. During the upcoming 2014-2015 school year, Crestwood will finalize plans for the establishment of a Fine Arts Academy, building on the excellent foundation we already have in the arts.

Our entire school program reflects the school's mission statement: "Crestwood High School: Keeping Academics and Citizenship First and Foremost."

John B. Huggins, Principal
Candace J. Leggett, SIC President
