REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

NMS is proud that our decisions and actions exemplify our motto, "Whatever it takes, our kids are worth it". Despite challenges, our school is proud of growth in academics, athletics, and the arts. Our goals of creating confident students and forming positive relationships with our families/community continue to be top priorities.

For our efforts this year, NMS was awarded the Palmetto Silver Award for general academic performance. Our focus on teacher collaboration and literacy integration continue to be at the forefront of our professional development for the upcoming Common Core State Standards. NMS has added two computer labs and computer-based math and ELA enrichment classes. Led by our literacy team, our media center and classroom libraries are being restocked with relevant literature. Our teachers are pushing the "Power of I" to hold students accountable for their work, and we have added morning, afternoon, and Saturday tutoring. All content areas, including the arts, have integrated literacy standards into their classrooms. Instead of waiting until the end of the year, we have begun to celebrate the academic efforts of our students each nine weeks with quarterly awards ceremonies. We are working to provide opportunities outside of the classrooms with field studies to Clemson University, University of South Carolina, Myrtle Beach, Charleston, and Washington, D.C.

We were winners in the classrooms and in the sports arenas. NMS had winning teams in volleyball, boys/girls basketball, football, and wrestling. We were able to form a mentoring partnership with the Newberry College football team, and our teachers and community came together to host the 2nd annual NMS Health Fair.

Our arts programs continue to soar, earning superior and excellent ratings at solo and ensemble competitions as well as the concert festivals. Our community enjoyed two concerts and a dinner theater/musical that involved students from across the arts.

Our relationships with our families and community grew through such programs as: Breakfast with the Principal, Goodies for Grands, Career Day, Club Days, Veterans' Day activities, Operation Get Smart, Duke Power program, job shadowing, PASS rally, No Name Calling Week initiative, community readers/speakers, and transition nights.

At NMS, we believe in giving back to our community. NMS students/teachers participated in fundraisers for the following charities: Hoops for Hearts, Juvenile Diabetes Drive, Relay for Life, United Way, and Manna House.

At NMS, we truly believe "whatever it takes, our kids ARE worth it"!
