South Carolina State Report Card

State and federal laws require public schools to release report cards to the public each year. This year, the report card has been updated to reflect changes in reporting directed by the SC Education Oversight Committee. Schools will not be rated for state accountability purposes until Fall 2017 when the state will transition to a single accountability system. The following reports student performance in school year 2014-15.

Brockington Elementary Magnet School for Science and Technology is a part of the Darlington County School District, and is located just outside the Darlington city limits. Brockington presently serves students in grades three through five. The Magnet School component made its debut during the 2001-2002 school year. While Brockington continues to serve the students for which it is zoned, parents in the Darlington area may submit an application for their children to attend BEMS as Magnet Students. The total enrollment for the 2014-2015 school year averaged 435 students. The ethnic makeup of the school is 55% African-American, 36% Caucasian, 0.02% Hispanic and 9.98% other. Brockington is a Title I site and 97.41 of our students qualify for free lunch under Community Eligibility Provisions. Since the implementation of SC PASS in 2009, Brockington has consistently made incremental growth maintaining an Average Absolute Rating. Fortunately, in 2012, BEMS made the leap to achieve an Absolute Rating of Good and has maintained the "Good" Absolute Rating for 2014. Out of 128 SC schools that are comparable to Brockington, the school is one of only 50 that has achieved this distinguished level. The following shows how Brockington students performed on the 2014 Palmetto Assessment of State Standards (PASS) for each sub-test according to the ESEA Criteria: Brockington earned an overall score of 82.6 which is a grade of B. Brockington was also designated as a Title I Reward School for Performance among the highest performing Title I schools in a given year. Brockington had been identified as a Focus School for 2012-2013 and 2013-2014. As of the 2014-2015 school year Brockington has made significant gains towards closing the achievement gap and is no longer considered a Focus School. Although rated as a "B" school, we are currently exceeding the state's expectations. Brockington continues to seek to be the best of the best that SC has to offer. We have set our sights on making significant gains over the next school year and hope to improve our Growth Rating. Stephanie Bridges, principal
