Our school is helping all students develop life and career characteristics to fulfill the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate. We are implementing strategies and activities to build world class knowledge and skills consistent with the lifelong learner. This year in collaboration with the Lex2 Next Initiative, Northside Middle School (NMS) issued each student a Samsung Galaxy Tablet. Through Samsung School and Google Classroom, our students and teachers are collaborating on assignments and reaching higher levels of rigor. In addition, we continue to maintain one Apple Lab, five Dell labs, and four portable Chrome Book labs. Our students are encouraged and supported to learn different platforms of technology and understand the advantages of each platform. We continue to work toward College and Career Readiness through our Achieve 3000 online reading program. NMS provides weekly access to Achieve 3000 to give each student the opportunity to improve reading comprehension. Each student is provided with their Lexile Score so they can measure their growth. We have also embarked on our second year of writing an interest-based research project. Students have been allowed to obtain and evaluate multiple sources using the Galaxy Tablets for online resources. We are indeed proud of our accomplished students and staff members. We remain committed to serving the diverse needs of our 558 students. We consistently prove that a school with excellent teachers who regularly use research-based instructional strategies coupled with great parental support can produce outstanding results. In 2014-2015, thirty-two students were inducted into the National Junior Honor Society to give us a total of seventy-two members. Seventeen students were qualified as South Carolina Junior Scholars. Sixteen students were honored as Myrdis Walker Scholars. Fifty-four students were named as Duke Tip scholars. Our students continue to excel on high school readiness assessments. Our student body's performance on the Spring administration of PASS earned NMS the Palmetto Gold Award. NMS earned an "Excellent, Excellent" rating on the school report card. NMS provides many opportunities to display our "Cougar Pride"! We have enhanced curriculum nights to highlight student accomplishments in the ELA, math, science, and social studies classrooms. Success after school continues and we are proud to consider the whole child at Northside. Our volleyball and football teams were Co-District champions. Several student artists have been recognized by the local Rotary Club. Our Chorus participated at the Cayce Tree-Lighting ceremony. Band, Chorus, and Strings performed at the Carowinds Music Festival and scored Superior, Excellent and Excellent ratings respectively. Our students demonstrate a commitment to the community participating in food drives for Harvest Hope, Spruce Up day at Northside, Hoops for Heart for the American Heart Association, Dig Pink for the American Cancer Association, and our staff contributes in the United Way campaign. We recognize our community's Veterans as
