

Four Elements of PBIS:

- Data for decision making
- Measurable outcomes supported and evaluated by data
- Practices with evidence that the outcomes are achievable
- Systems that efficiently and effectively support implementation of these practices

The Four Elements are guided by Six Important Principles:

- Develop a continuum of scientifically based behavior and academic interventions and supports
- Use data to make decisions and solve problems
- Arrange the environment to prevent the development and occurrence of problem behavior
- Teach and encourage prosocial skills and behaviors
- Implement evidence-based behavioral practices with fidelity and accountability
- Screen universally and monitor student performance and progress continuously

School Interested Should:

- 80% of the schools' staff wants to implement
