REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The Fuller Normal Advanced Technology Charter School is located in Greenville's exciting West End. The West End is the upstate's newest story of urban renewal—a renaissance that has brought about the Greenville Drive Baseball Stadium, new shops, restaurants and condominiums, and the Governor's School for the Arts. Our school is a reflection of both the West End renewal and the Sterling Community, which was developed in the late 1800's by visionaries who believed that African Americans should own property and be able to pursue excellence.

Our charter school allows for an enrollment of 640 students over an 8 year period of time. With the addition of another grade, our school will be grades K-5-7th for the 2008-2009 school year. We have an enrollment of 166 students with 77% of our population on free and reduced lunch. Our school will have enough data over the summer to make an intelligent comparison of student achievement.

Our school improvement council is led by Bishop Patrick Frazier. This is our first year as a team. The teachers, students, and parents are looking forward to beginning planned activities for the coming school year.

Brenda Gilliam-Humbert, Principal
Bishop Patrick Frazier, Board Chairman
