REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Oak Grove Elementary has worked very hard this year to show our Patriot Pride. We implemented a new Positive Behavior Support system for students that showcased student pride, respect, independent learning, dependability, and effort. We recognized students for exhibiting these characteristics. Each week these students could win a certificate, a small prize, and a positive telephone call home. Students loved trying to earn a Patriot Pride card as they learned to model these behaviors for one another.

We were also very fortunate this year to move into our new kindergarten wing and multi-purpose room. The PTA helped support this renovation project by purchasing wonderful picnic tables, benches, and mulch for our outdoor classroom. We hope to continue to improve this area to make it an inviting learning environment.

Many teachers have worked hard this year writing grants for innovative ways to improve instruction. The Michelin Golden Apple Teacher and the Mid-Carolina Electric Cooperative Bright Ideas are just two of the grants the teachers received.

Students kept busy with service-learning projects, such as a Food Drive for Lexington Interfaith Community Services and a balloon release that raised money for Relay For Life.

Parents have been actively involved with our school through the school PTA and SIC. The PTA sponsored a very successful Fall Festival and Literacy Night this year.

Family Math and Science Night, Piggly Wiggly Night, parenting workshops, and our Winter Arts Festival were just a few of the activities that kept our families and community actively involved at OGES.

While OGES succeeded at many things this year, one of our greatest challenges during the 2007–2008 school year was the continued growth in student population and the ongoing need to improve interventions for the very diverse academic and social needs of our students. We continued to improve our intervention model for assisting students. As a result, the Education Oversight Committee again recognized our school with a Closing the Achievement Gap award.

We are proud of our accomplishments this year at OGES. It is through our dedicated support system of parents, students, staff, and community that we continue to flourish and to strive for excellence in all that we do.

Devona L. Price, Principal
John D. Ogle, SIC Chair
