REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

We have continued with the motto of "Excellence through Teamwork" as the theme for the Central High School community during the 2007-2008 school year. This collaborative approach has improved the academic culture and the community's perception about their role in developing a well-rounded student.

For the second consecutive year, the South Carolina Association of School Administrators has recognized Central High as a Palmetto's Finest Finalist. We were one of only 4 high schools to receive this distinction. Finalists are selected based on extensive evaluations by fellow educators that access student achievement, faculty training, program goals, teaching quality, and community involvement.

Central High School continues to perform significantly better than other comparable high schools in South Carolina. In each of the four categories used to determine the school report card rating, Central performed among the top schools in the state.

In 2007, Central High met the federal mandate of Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) for the 3rd Consecutive year. This would not have been possible without the hard work and dedication of all of our stakeholders.

I would like to encourage students, parents, teachers, and members of the Central High community to continue to work as a team as we attempt to maximize the potential of every student. We will achieve "Excellence through Teamwork."

J.R. Green, Principal
Mark Black, SIC Chairperson
