REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2007-2008 school year brought new grade configuration changes for Ridgeland Middle School. The fifth and sixth grade students returned to the elementary school and the ninth graders moved from the high school to the middle school. These changes will thus convert Ridgeland Middle School to a junior high school model. This change will facilitate greater collaboration with the high school. This past year's sweeping changes brought about major adjustments for the junior high school as well.

Some of those changes included two new Pre-k-12 facilities at the north and south end of the county, a new district level superintendent, new school-based administrators, and year two implementation of the Anderson 5 curriculum. The 2008-2009 school year will bring its own challenges as the school re-establishes itself as a true middle school housing grades 6-8. The demographic makeup is about 77% African American, 10% Caucasian, 9% Hispanic, and 4% other. Less than 3% of our current teaching staff has more than four years of teaching experience.

There were several highlights for the 2007-2008 school year. The following represent some of the noteworthy accomplishments of the year: selection of Ms Mary Lewis as 'Teacher of the Year,' boy's Basketball Team recognized as Conference Champions; improved MAP scores on winter administration of test; students and staff recognized during quarterly award programs; Honor Roll students embarking on incentive field trips; establishment of Ministerial Alliance Community Outreach Group; hosted 1st annual Hispanic Festival; science coach orchestrated 1st Science Fair/Health Fair; established 'Single-gender' classes for 7th & 8th grades; and conducted mid-year retreat focusing on key professional development areas.

We look with eager anticipation toward the upcoming school term, hoping to build on the successes of last year, as well as learning from the challenges. Numerous activities are planned and new ventures are in place to facilitate the future success of Ridgeland Middle School.
