REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The accomplishments and recognitions of the 2008-2009 school year confirm Wade Hampton High School's standing as one of the outstanding High Schools in South Carolina. The attention given to the individual student continues to be an attribute that we are known for throughout the upstate. Just a few of the highlights from the 2008-2009 school year include: placement of our school among the finalists for the Carolina First Palmetto's Finest award, receiving both a Palmetto Gold Award and the Palmetto Gold Closing the Gap award for our academic accomplishments, the presentation of the Sword of Excellence to our AFJROTC unit, and the Cross Country Team's sixth State Championship in the past 10 years.

The 2009 graduating class numbered 300 students, an increase of over 15% from last year's class, demonstrating that the benefits from our Freshman Academy continue to be realized despite its growth. Of those graduates, 80 qualified for Life Scholarships, 23 received Palmetto Fellows Scholarships. Collectively, they received over $8,000,000 in scholarship offers.

In Science, Algebra, and English, the EOC pass rates increased an average of 5% with US History's pass rate taking a staggering 11% leap over last year. We offered 14 AP courses and administered a total of 461 AP exams to the 340 students enrolled this past spring. For the fifth year in a row, WHHS has been listed in Newsweek's Top High Schools in America. Our placement on this prestigious roster places WHHS at number 6 in the state of South Carolina and number 2 in Greenville County.

Our award-winning and very active SIC and PTSA are key players in the decision making processes of our school. WHHS's recognition as a PTSA National School of Excellence is evidence of the dedication our PTSA has to our school. Parent and student representatives are given opportunities to communicate with our principal and other administrators on issues surrounding the school's culture and curriculum. Families and others logged over 51,000 volunteer hours this year. This included the contributions of the less-traditional volunteers such as working parents, guardians, grandparents, and even siblings. Our faculty continues to achieve 100% PTSA membership even before students began school, and with representatives serving on both committees, their voices are part of the decision-making process as well.

We continue to work collaboratively with the Fine Arts Center. Some of our growth can be attributed to the Fine Arts Center as Wade Hampton continues to be the high school of choice for countless Greenville county students seeking special permission for academic and arts-related reasons. We credit our outstanding faculty in providing the groundwork for the success of our students and are proud to have the 2009 Greenville County Schools Principal of the Year guiding the way. We expect enrollment to be well over 1,500 next year, and we look forward to even greater achievements in academics, the arts, athletics, and our extracurricular programs. Our Generals continue to make us proud. Cum audacia!
