REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Loris High School has enjoyed many successes during the 2008-09 school year. We were selected as a MetLife NASSP Breakthrough School and received a $5,000 grant from the MetLife Foundation. Loris High School was one of five high schools in the United States to receive this award presented to high-poverty schools that are experiencing academic success. LHS was featured in the June 2009 issue of Principal Leadership magazine to share some of the strategies the school is using to improve student achievement for all students. LHS was also a finalist for the Carolina First Palmetto's Finest 2009 Award. Our school was also a Palmetto Gold Award winner for General Performance. LHS won a Silver award for AYP. We expanded our Advanced Placement course offerings; ninety students took a total of 118 AP exams in seven courses, up from fifteen exams in 2008. Two hundred students received one-on-one academic assistance in Extended Options, our afterschool program. We provided bus transportation two afternoons a week. Trevor Strawderman, Principal, 2008-09; Phillip Gaillard, School Improvement Council Chair, 2008-09
