REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The mission of Dutch Fork Middle School, in partnership with our community, is to ensure that our students succeed through a rigorous academic program in a nurturing environment. During the 2008-2009 school year, students, faculty, and staff continued to showcase the academic, athletic, and overall excellence of Dutch Fork Middle.

An eighth grade student was the District 5 winner of the South Carolina Department of Education Essay Contest. A seventh grade student participated in the People to People World Leadership Forum, joining a select group of students in Washington, D.C., to study leadership. The Footprints staff received an Honor rating from the South Carolina Scholastic Press Association and an All-Southern rating from the Southern Interscholastic Press Association.

Student Council was awarded the Gold Honors Council distinction for the third time. In addition to this award, the DFMS Student Council received two Outstanding Project Awards, entitled "Black History Month--DFMS Style!" and "Dutch Fork Middle School supports Groundhog Job Shadowing Day!" The DFMS S.A.V.E program sponsored activities to promote diversity, understanding, and appreciation and sought to promote a safe school environment.

The cheerleading squad completed its competition season with four first place finishes. An eighth grade student started on the DFHS Varsity basketball team. A seventh grade student won the Region 5 4A Golf Tournament. An eighth grade student was on the DFHS state championship boys' golf team. An eighth grade student was a member of the DFHS state championship girls track team.

As part of our school wide literacy focus, DFMS started a mother and daughter book club. We also held Laps for Literacy, a 5K race used to raise funds to support our literacy program. DFMS also started a literacy initiative that requires students to read year round.

Gaining National Board Certification were Literacy Coach, Charla Greene, and eighth grade language arts teacher, Kristi Grooms. Amy Westbury, eighth grade math teacher, was named Teacher of the Year; and Laurie Dobbe, media assistant, was elected Support Staff Employee of the Year. The principal received the Tenenbaum Award from the South Carolina Department of Education.

Parents volunteered and served on the DFMS School Improvement Council and PTSO board, providing leadership as school, parents, and community members worked to actualize our school's mission.

Our student achievement results continue to be among the best in the state. We continue to stress rigor, relevance, and relationships in our instructional program as we work to maintain excellence. At DFMS we are "shaping the future... making connections" for all students.
