District Superintendent's Report

The students and faculty members of Lexington County School District Three were busy throughout the school year claiming accolades for a variety of reasons during the 2009-2010 school year. Even though state mandated budget cuts were a part of the school year, District Three students and faculty chose to rise above these concerns and once again brought great distinction to the district. Some of each school's accomplishments follow.

Batesburg-Leesville Primary School was selected as a winner in the USDA Fresh Fruits and Vegetable Grant program for the first time. Special education teacher Susan Burkett was named as the 2010 South Carolina Council for Children with Behavioral Disorders Teacher of the Year. The B-L Primary PTO raised money for two students battling forms of cancer. With community spirit in mind, the school raised $10,317 in its annual Jump Rope for Heart Program and $2,500 in the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life campaign.

Batesburg-Leesville Elementary School was selected again as a winner in the USDA Fresh Fruits and Vegetable Grant program. The school was also named as a Red Carpet School for the second time. B-L Elementary received an Arts Curricular Innovation Grant and was selected as the South Carolina Recycling School of the Year. Students raised $3,443 for the Diabetes Association and $1,800 for the Relay for Life program. A team of fourth graders captured first place honors in the state-wide MathFest Extravaganza held in March. Fifth grade teacher Mary Clare Price was selected as the district's Teacher of the Year.

Batesburg-Leesville Middle School continued its Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) program and also hosted a PASS Day Rally to encourage students to do their best on PASS testing in May. The students and faculty raised $1,600 for the relief effort for Haitian children through several fundraising activities. The B-L Middle School Band received an "Outstanding" rating in the Southern States Music Festival in Atlanta.

Batesburg-Leesville High School was named as one of the top 19 South Carolina high schools by U.S. News and World Report. The school's soccer team claimed its first AA State Championship, and the Competition Cheer Squad was second in the Lower State AA cheer competition. The B-L High Band received the Silver Medal in the SCBDA AA State Marching Band Championship. The band's Winter Guard received a bronze medal in State Competition as well. A freshman at BLHS was selected as the 2010 CSRA Regional Science Fair winner and received an all-expense paid trip to California to participate in the Intel International Science Fair. The Student Council raised $3,668 for the Relay for Life Program and the Class of 2010 was awarded over $3.5 million in scholarships.

The Lifelong Learning Center had 69 Certified Nursing Assistant graduates and 23 individuals who completed their GED during the 2010-2011 school year.

Lexington Three had 100% of its teachers deemed "Highly Qualified" under No Child Left Behind criteria, and the district also received an Arts Curricular Innovation Grant to be used to bring arts enhancements to all of the schools. A district-wide visual arts show was held which showcased the talents of many of our students.
