REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

As superintendent, this has been a very rewarding school year for me. I have observed many of our students in various classes and have gotten to know many of them by name.

The Class of 2010 is to be congratulated for their academic achievement. This class garnered $5,618,008 in scholarships. We congratulate them for their efforts, their families for their sacrifices, and our instructional staff for their dedication and support.

Higher expectations for all of our students remain a legislative reality and a moral imperative. We will continue to be "Committed to Successful Learning, Student by Student." We will also continue to improve student achievement in all areas. Additionally, we will be implementing Bamberg School District Two's Collaborative Assessment for Planning and Achievement (CAPA) Transformation Model, which will focus on expanding learning time for reading and math instruction. This will be accomplished through a 90-minute block schedule. The CAPA Model focuses on intensive reading instruction, which gives struggling students and special needs students the critical literacy and math skills needed to succeed in rigorous English Language Arts and mathematics courses.

As you review this report card, think of it as a new opportunity to move our students toward a report card rating of "Good" and, ultimately, "Excellent." This can be done. We will continue to monitor our students and provide the necessary support and appropriate resources for achieving success.

Please accept my deep appreciation for your continued efforts with our students and your support for quality public education – the genius of our democracy.

Dr. Jake Sello, Superintendent
