REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Lockett Elementary a small, rural school, where academic excellence is our priority. Exceptional faculty and staff make the learning process profitable for student achievement. The combined efforts of the faculty, staff, students, administration, and the community, provide the best educational opportunities to all students. Parental support is a plus at Lockett Elementary.

Lockett Elementary has consistently scored average or above average on the previous PACT test. On the first PASS test our test scores were consistent with the old PACT test. "Expect the best at LES" expresses high expectations for all students throughout the learning process. The PASS test will continue to assess our students as they make every effort to reach their academic potential.

For the past several years, Lockett has been awarded the Palmetto Silver Award, Red Carpet Award, Orangeburg County Summer Reading Award, Health Factor Award, State Superintendent District Writing Award Winner, and numerous other recognitions.

Our report card rating for 2009, Absolute, Average, Improvement, Good, is indicative of the success our students experience at Lockett Elementary. Lockett met all standards on AYP for 2009.

Lockett Elementary is committed to academic achievement for all students. Teaching and exposing every child to a variety of educational opportunities is our primary focus. With the assistance of our stakeholders, we can consistently provide the educational opportunities for all students.

Correspondences, through newsletters, flyers, invitations, phone tree, agendas, etc., help us inform the community of programs and events at the school doing school the school year.

Working together for all students, helping them reach their fullest potential and seeing success is our main goal at Lockett Elementary.

We are facing challenging times with school funding and limited personnel as we continue to strive for excellence in academic achievement. We invite all stakeholders to visit our school and participate in the educational process of our students. Your support is always appreciated.
