REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Cherokee County Public Schools had another great year serving our students.

Upon the release of the 2010 state report card, the Cherokee County School District was pleased to learn that ten elementary schools and Blacksburg High School made adequate yearly progress. Corinth, Draytonville, Goucher, and Northwest elementary earned Palmetto Silver General Performance Awards for 2010. Draytonville and Northwest also received Palmetto Silver Closing the Achievement Gap Award. Blacksburg High received a general performance Palmetto Gold Award. Both Blacksburg and Gaffney High earned the Palmetto Gold Closing the Gap Achievement Award for Excellent End-of-Year Performance and/or for Growth in On-Time Graduation Rate. Gaffney High School received Magna Cum Laude for Improvement of SAT scores and Cum Laude for Improvement of ACT scores from the State Department of Education.

The Drop Out rate has improved greatly. This percentage has changed from 8.3 in 2007 to 0.8 in 2010. This is due to the implementation of mentoring programs and Credit Recovery Software. Both high schools' 2010 graduation rates were above the state average. Blacksburg High School had a rate of 88.4% for a 6.7% increase. This was one of the highest graduation rates in the state. The graduation rate at Gaffney High School was 77%.

Five members of the class of 2011 graduated from high school with 12 years of perfect attendance. Also, the graduates earned $8,492,716 in scholarship offers. The Gaffney High School JROTC Unit received the Distinguished Unit with Merit Award for 2010-2011 from the United States Air Force. They have received this award for several consecutive years. Fifty eighth grade students earned Junior Scholar recognition for PSAT scores. A number of students won first, second, or third place in art and essay contests, band or cheerleading competitions, and other tournaments on the local and state levels.

Alma Elementary School was recognized for the NetSCOPE Partnership with Winthrop University. The goals of NetSCOPE are to improve P-12 student learning, improve professional learning, improve quality of teacher preparation, and increase the application of research-based practices in classrooms and schools.

Ms. Kim Camp, Principal of Alma Elementary School, was named SCIRA Administrator of the Year. Mrs. Lisa Blanton was named District Teacher of the Year. The district has 45 National Board Certified Teachers and continues to recruit highly qualified instructors in all areas of instruction.

Many factors contributed to a successful year: student effort, teacher dedication, parent support, and community help and input. We appreciate the effort, assistance, and support from everyone in making 2010-2011 a very successful school year for the students and staff of the Cherokee County School District.

Edgar C. Taylor, Superintendent.
