REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Goucher Gorillas began the year with a new emphasis on behavior and academics focusing on positive expectations and positive outcomes. The staff received training on PBIS (Positive Behavior Intervention Supports) and was able to implement the first year of this program. The program provided the framework for the school to recognize students for making appropriate choices concerning their behavior and their academics. Students had opportunities to participate in several incentive programs such as the Banana Buggy school store, which allowed the students to trade incentive "bucks" they had received for various items, and also the Banana Bash parties which were held at the end of each nine weeks for students meeting their "bucks" goal for the nine weeks.

Our school is fortunate to receive money from the Federal Title One Program that can be used in classrooms for materials, supplies, and technology. This year these funds helped offset the cost for parents by providing back-to-school supplies such as binders, notebook paper, pencils, crayons, scissors, glue, and many other needed items for students. Five classrooms were upgraded with amplifier systems which enhanced the learning environment for the students. Books were purchased for distribution to the students for incentives and to help build at-home library collections. Lastly, funds were used to provide information to our parents through the school-wide newsletters, parenting workshops, and special programs.

Many of our Goucher students took part in enrichment opportunities offered. Those included Honors Choir, Student Council, Beta Club, Recycling Club, Junior Readers' Guild, Chess Club, Beautification Team, and Veteran's Day Celebration. Students showed support for their community through helping raise funds for Relay for Life and Jump Rope for Heart. Can food drives were held for Peach Center Ministries and items were collected and sent to our military.

The support of our PTO continues to be a source of pride. Students enjoyed programs and field trip opportunities, incentives for students and teachers, Too Good for Drugs t-shirts for our fifth grade, a special lunch for our staff during Teacher Appreciation Week and installed window tint for the gym.

In celebration of our staff, we honored Julie Wood as 2010-2011 Teacher of the Year, Kristen Patton was selected the Distinguished Teacher of Reading, and Linda Duncan was recognized for 34 years of service in education on her retirement. Our school was also honored as a Palmetto Silver School.
