REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Keowee Elementary School, in the upstate of South Carolina, is a pre-Kindergarten-5th grade school that serves 330 students in a rural area of Oconee County. The mission of Keowee Elementary, in cooperation with home and community, is to challenge and enable every child to learn and grow academically, socially, and emotionally within a safe and nurturing environment. The school and community's commitment to this mission is evident in the numerous awards and recognitions received by the school, the faculty, the students, and the school's volunteers.

While maintaining its family-friendly atmosphere, the school strives to provide data-driven, differentiated and individualized instruction in order to insure success for all students. During the 2010-2011 school year, Keowee Elementary was proud to be recognized as a SC Palmetto Gold Award winning school.

Throughout the year, students were honored for their participation in numerous state and local contests, to include: State Superintendent of Education Writing Contest, the Emergency Preparedness Tornado Poster Contest, Blue Ridge Arts Council Exhibition, Memorial Day Essay Contest, Duke World of Energy Art Show, SDOC Math Competition, SC Honors Choir, and Clemson University Tiger Relays.

Keowee Elementary's teachers also received numerous hours of professional development in the following areas: technology, The Daily 5 approach to literacy, and instructing exceptional children to assist them in meeting the needs of all learners. Teachers also used current computerized assessment information to plan for individualized instruction and to regularly assess student progress towards their year-end goals.

The achievements of Keowee Elementary students are a direct result of the commitment of faculty, staff, and community working together to provide a rich, relevant curriculum that incorporates the most current technology and research-based instructional methods.
