District Superintendent's Report

The 2010 – 2011 school year was another successful year for Chesterfield County School District. Thanks to the diligent efforts of our students, their families, teachers, staff, and administrators, the Chesterfield County School District continued to show progress in many important areas during the 2010-2011 school year. Eleven schools in Chesterfield County School District were recently honored by the S.C. Department of Education with Palmetto Awards for achievement for the 2010-2011 school year. Chesterfield High, Central High, Plainview Elementary and Ruby Elementary were honored with a gold award for general performance. Long Middle, McBee High, Edwards Elementary, Jefferson Elementary, McBee Elementary, and Chesterfield-Ruby Middle were recognized with silver awards for general performance. Cheraw High, Central High and Ruby Elementary were honored with a silver award for closing the achievement gap. This is among the highest number of Palmetto Award winners that the district has had since the inception of the program. Additionally, five of our elementary schools were recognized for meeting Adequate Yearly Progress for achieving 100 percent of their NCLB objectives. The percentage of students passing both parts of the HSAP has increased from 76.3% in 2010 to 79.7% in 2012. The percentage of Hispanic and LEP students passing both parts of the HSAP was 100%. The district's graduation rate increased from 67.7% in 2010 to 72.1% in 2011. Twenty-eight Chesterfield County School District students were honored by the school board for having perfect scores on the 2010-2011 Palmetto Assessment of State Standards (PASS). Students in the Advanced Placement United History class at Cheraw High all achieved a 100% pass rate on the AP exam. This year CCSD seniors earned in excess of $ 6,333,736 in scholarships. Our District ranks tenth in the state out of 85 districts in the percentage of funds that go directly to instruction and instructional support in the classroom.

Congratulations to Chesterfield High School girls' softball team who won the State Championship. Members of the McBee Elementary Chorus performed at the People's Plaza in Independence National Historical Park during a recent trip to Philadelphia, PA.

This year six teachers earned National Board Certification bringing the number up from 75 in 2010 to 81 this year. New Heights Middle School principal Larry Stinson was recognized as the Carolina Careers Educational Champion of the Year at the 2011 Education and Business Summit sponsored by the South Carolina Department of Education Office of Career and Technology Education (CATE).

Chesterfield County Schools has much to be proud of, but we also recognize that there is much work to be done as we strive to provide a world class education for the children of our school district. Our Board of Trustees, teachers, staff, parents, and community are prepared to work together to provide a quality educational experience for our students.

J. Harrison Goodwin, Ed.D., Superintendent
