District Superintendent's Report

During the 2011-2012 school year, Richland One schools, students and employees maintained a laser-like focus on the district's No. 1 priority – student achievement. The percentage of Richland One students in grades 3-8 who scored "Met" and "Exemplary" on the Palmetto Assessment of State Standards (PASS) increased in all five subject areas (writing, English language arts, science and social studies) in 2011. The district also met 93.9 percent of its Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) performance objectives. Richland One had the largest number of schools making year-to-year gains on their school report cards compared with other Midlands school districts. The growth rating on the district's report card went up by four categories to "Excellent" in 2011. Richland One schools earned 37 Palmetto Gold and Palmetto Silver awards, the state's highest awards for academic achievement and student improvement. Gadsden Elementary was honored by the U.S. Department of Education as a 2011 National Blue Ribbon School in recognition of its successes in raising student achievement. South Kilbourne Elementary was nominated for a 2012 National Blue Ribbon School award. Twenty-two more Richland One teachers earned National Board certification in 2011-2012, bringing the district's total number of nationally certified teachers to 287. The district's Teacher of the Year, also a National Board-certified teacher, was chosen as one of five finalists for South Carolina Teacher of the Year. Sixteen Richland One high-school seniors were selected as semifinalists in the highly competitive National Merit Scholarship and National Achievement Scholarship programs. One hundred and thirty-eight high school seniors were honored as Richland One Academic All-Stars. Two Richland One high-school seniors were named Gates Millennium Scholars. The prestigious scholarship, awarded through the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, will cover their full college tuition and expenses, including graduate school. As a whole, the Richland One Class of 2012 earned more than $55.3 million in scholarships and other financial assistance, setting a new district record. Richland One students also excelled in athletics during the 2011-2012 school year. The Dreher High girls basketball team won the Class 3A state championship. The Columbia High girls basketball team was the runner-up for the Class 2A state championship title. The Dreher High boys track team won the Class 3A state championship. A.C. Flora High's boys golf team and baseball team won Class 3A state championship titles. Several individual student-athletes also were named state champions. The accomplishments of these student-athletes is particularly impressive because Richland One is one of only a few South Carolina school districts with a C average requirement for student participation in athletics and other co-curricular activities.
