REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Cyril B. Busbee Elementary/A. L. Corbett Middle Schools is one school with two names. Both schools are named after prominent Wagener residents. The community, school district and school felt it was important to keep both names when the school combined in 2010-2011.

Cyril B. Busbee Elementary/A .L. Corbett Middle Schools is a K-8 rural school in a farming community with an 85% poverty rate. Despite the poverty level of 85%, Cyril B. Busbee Elementary/A .L. Corbett Middle Schools received the Palmetto Gold Award for increases in test scores for the 2010-2011 school year. Cyril B. Busbee Elementary also received two Silver Awards in 2009-2010 before the two schools combined for increasing test scores and closing achievement gaps between free and reduced lunch students and full pay students.

With instruction as a focus, academic growth has been at the fore front of progress made at both schools. Examples of the educational programs available in both schools include the Gifted and Talented Program for grades 3-8, After School Tutorial Programs for Math and Reading, Enrichment classes for middle level students, the accommodations lab used to support special needs students, the computer lab which provides programs where students can work at their own ability level, individual teacher interventions, mentors from the community, and subject based classes in fourth through eighth grade. The combined faculty has also provided an instructional based focus to create growth in test scores and social character skills.
