REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2011-12 year was filled with the fun of learning and flourishing as leaders at Newington Elementary. Our classroom lessons were creative and engaging. Students interacted with technology, worked in groups to create projects or solve problems, and contributed to our community through classroom instructional activities that were also connected to leadership and service learning. The students contributed to the Palmetto House, Dorchester County Recycling, the Ronald McDonald House, the American Cancer Society and Jump Rope for Heart. We participated in memorable Peace Flag celebrations throughout the year including school wide BINGO, hallway dances, and Locks for Love. The chorus and recorder clubs performed, students ran the Dolphin Run, and a production of Suessical, Jr. awed young and old alike. We enjoyed hosting visitors for our 1st Leadership Day in April, where our students showcased their talents in performance and public speaking. Through the implementation of the Leader in Me and our club days, our students demonstrated their abilities to lead in all areas of the school culture.

The year was challenging for our staff and students as we continued to implement a rigorous curriculum, participated in benchmark testing, and debriefed about data. As a result, we celebrated successes and planned for differentiated lessons that would challenge each child based on his or her personal performance. Our teachers planned together and trained in the implementation of the Common Core standards and the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People.

We have been blessed with continued success in the team effort of our students, staff, and parents. The results from the 2011 Palmetto Assessment of State Standards reflected gains and earned Newington another "Excellent" report card from the State Department of Education, as well as the Palmetto Gold Award for student achievement. In addition to school wide successes, individual students were winners in essay contests, class and school spelling bees, athletic challenges, and school and district PTA Reflections contests. We ended the year by celebrating our seventy-seven Third-fifth grade Silver and Gold Honor Roll recipients (all A's for 3 or 4 nine weeks), our Kindergarten graduation, and hosting our ever popular Reading Carnival. We are extremely proud of the accomplishments of our students, staff and families as we work together to provide our children with the best educational experience possible.

As you can see, it was another wonderful year for our Newington family. Students and staff challenged each other to be leaders of our selves while living the 7 Habits. We look forward to the 2012-2013 school year. We will be learning more about the Common Core standards as we phase them in over the coming year and we will continue to integrate the Leader in Me philosophy of student leadership along with our PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports) goals.

Touching the heart and mind of every learner and developing leaders of our selves is our steadfast commitment.
