REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

During the 2011-2012 school year, there continued to be strong evidence of continuous growth and improvement at Hyatt Park Elementary School. We were pleased to announce that our school received The Palmetto Silver Award based on continuous growth in student achievement over the past three years. Our school takes pride in 2011-2012 accomplishments knowing we are no longer in Title I School Improvement or Corrective Action status.

School-wide literacy initiatives were implemented to increase the number of students reading at or above grade level. Diagnostic assessments administered at the beginning of the year to kindergarten through third grade students, indicated growth and improvements have occurred in the areas of reading, language and literacy development and mathematics. Reading interventionists and Midlands Reading Consortium partners collaborated to bridge the reading gap among students reading below grade level. MAP data indicated an increase in the number of students making expected gains in mathematics and reading. A yearlong school-wide initiative designed to increase student achievement in mathematics was successfully implemented. Initiatives included Title I laptop lending program and math interventionists to provided small group instruction.

Fifteen fourth and fifth grade students were recognized as Duke Tip Scholars. More than 250 students received recognition for academic achievement and citizenship during the school year. In addition, one hundred students were recognized during our first annual Shinning Star Gala for their hard work in academics, attendance and behavior. We successfully implemented a school-wide Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Grant which allowed students, parents and staff to enjoy healthy fruits and vegetables throughout the year.

After-school/extended day programs and services were enhanced as the result of a 21st Century Learning Communities Grant which is moving into its fourth year of implementation. Partnerships with EdVenture and Midtown Fellowship Church have enhanced and increased our ability to assist students in meeting academic goals and requirements.

In addition to parent-teacher conferences, PTO meetings, and academic night activities, the Parent-Child-Home initiative which provides home-visits and support to pre-school aged students and the Books and Breakfast Program had another successful year. We were very pleased that Midtown Fellowship Church was recognized as the Richland District One Volunteer Group of Year. Midtown also sponsored our 2011-2012 Cougar Carnival which was a tremendous success. Other community partners and supporters include, Academy of Columbia, Alpha Kappa Alpha, Bi-Lo, City Year, DESA, Foster Grandparents, Houston's, North Columbia Business Association and W. L. Bonner College. These partners provided a wealth of assistance and support to our students and staff throughout the school year.

Our faculty and staff have openly embraced Academic Optimism and believe that the work they do each day has a profound and positive effect in the lives of our students. We look forward to another exciting and productive school year.
