REPORT OF DIRECTOR AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The Dillon County Technology Center enjoyed an exciting 2011-2012 school year. The center began the year with a new teacher in Graphics Communications and a teacher returning in Health Science that had only taught for one semester the previous year. The center also began the year with a new Agriculture Science Teacher who came to our center from North Carolina with 33 years experience in teaching. The center also completed the NATEF Recertification for our Automotive Technology Program and completed our SACS Evaluation in March of 2012 with success. Some additional accomplishments are as follows: The center met and surpassed all six of the Federal Carl Perkins Standards for Career and Technology Education. The Cosmetology Department had a 100% passing rate for the students State Board Exam. These students will receive their State Cosmetology Licenses before graduation. The Health Science Department competed in the State Health Science Competitive Events and sent one student to the National Events. The Automotive Technology Program added an additional worksite through the AYES Organization and the centers' Work Base Learning Program. The Automotive Technology Program had 8 students to complete and pass the end of course testing in the state testing program. The center also held state end of course testing in Masonry, Welding and Health Science. Six Culinary Arts Students were awarded full scholarships in different Culinary Arts Institutes. Nine students were inducted into the National Technical Honor Society. The center had 353 students to participate in 62 different service-learning projects. The centers' Health Science Program was again awarded the 1 A Career Center Award for the largest membership. The center was also awarded the Gold GP Award for General Performance. The welding program also participated in the Regional Welding Program, as well as, the Masonry Program participated in the State Masonry Contest. The Culinary Arts Department also competed in two different Culinary Arts contests were two students placed in the top five and were awarded college scholarships. The Center Director, Jerry R. Strickland has worked with Mr. George Hayes the Centers' School Improvement Chairman in the preparation of the centers' Local Plan for Education and the report for the centers' report card.
