REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Midway Elementary has had a phenomenal year, as we along with the community began our celebration of Midway's 90 years of service to our community. Yes, 90 years of educating our outstanding boys and girls of the Cassatt Community. Our students embraced life skills each month and grew in character. Students participated in a program headed by our guidance counselor that allowed them to earn special recognition for accumulating "days of peace." They also were recognized for showing their lifeskills each week and special recognition went to a student from each grade level. Our students' achievement continues to soar as we set high expectations, not only for our students, but for our staff as well. Professional development continues to be a priority for our staff as we continue to learn and grow along with our "bright bobcats." We continue to seek opportunities for our students, allowing them to grow as learners. Our students participated in many activities throughout the year. Our students also wrote and delivered over 2,000 letters this year through our "Wee Deliver" mail system and read over 2,500 books, as part of our Blowfish Baseball challenge, resulting in our media specialist and guidance counselor singing on the roof!

Through various fundraisers over the past two years, our PTO recently donated $6000 towards our playground scholarship fund. A few of our celebration activities included a reception here at school, with over 200 persons attending. We also enjoyed a well-attended Juniors Rodeo, hosting contestants from South Carolina and North Carolina. Our 90 year celebration will culminate this fall with the unveiling of our Outdoor classroom, made possible through a Lowes Toolbox grant at the Midway Class Reunion in November. We will bury a time capsule, which we will dig up at the 100 year celebration in 10 years.

We have accomplished much this year and will continue to reach for the stars! Our students deserve nothing but the best that we have to offer. Many thanks to our parents and to the business community for your continued support! Together we can do great things!
