REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Lamar High School, a Class A high school in the southern region of Darlington County, has a population of 289 students in grades 9-12.

Its academic program consists of a comprehensive curriculum of college prep, honors level and advanced placement courses, as well as dual credit opportunities (courses for high school and college credit) in which students may enroll.

Course offerings in visual and performing arts, as well as vocational completer programs, available through the Darlington County Institute of Technology, enhance the academic program at Lamar High School. The extracurricular programs at Lamar High School add the finishing touch needed to provide a well rounded educational experience for our students.

Among the numerous academic accomplishments of the Lamar High

Silver Foxes, during the 2012-13 school year were the following: 32% of our students made the honor roll each quarter, 41% received awards at the annual academic ceremony, 25% of the graduating class were vocational completers, 32% of the graduating class met the grade point average and class rank requirements for the Life Scholarship, and over $1,132,000.00 in scholarship money was offered to members of the class of 2013. Our school was tied with two other high schools for the highest graduation rate out of 212 high schools in South Carolina. Our school was fifth in the state for African American performance. Our graduation rate in 2012 was 100%.

Lamar Silver Foxes had many extracurricular successes in the 2012-13 school year.

Lamar High School continues to strive for improved student performance on the HSAP, PSAT, SAT, ACT, EOCEP and all academic areas.

Lamar High was a proud recipient of the Palmetto Gold Award for General Performance and the Palmetto Gold Award for Closing the Achievement Gap.

Kathy B. Gainey, Principal
Susan Lear, School Improvement Council Chairperson
