REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

With more than 48 years of history behind it, J.L. Mann High School, Academy of Math, Science and Technology, continues to be a model of excellence in the Greenville County School system. With an enrollment of over 1668, the accomplishments of its students and staff provide a source of pride to the district. Working closely with various community groups, Mann's reputation both academically and athletically has continued to rise while serving as one of the district's Magnet Program schools.

Academically, J.L. Mann's graduating class of 2012 established themselves as a stellar group. The Class of 2012 received $5,305,450.00 in higher education scholarships, recognized 27 Palmetto Fellows, 2 National Merit Semi-finalists, 15 Sistine Scholars, and 61 AP Scholars. With these continued gains in merit scholarship monies, it is evident that Mann is advancing the overall achievement of all students. In addition, the staff at Mann prides itself with 7 Nationally Board Certified Teachers with others in progress. An "Excellent" rating on the School Report Card indicated gains in numerous sub-categories. The SC State Department of Education awarded Mann the "Magna Cum Laude" Award for excellent performance and rapid growth on the ACT/SAT and named Mann a Palmetto Gold School. Mann's continued focus on providing additional academic help and teacher collaboration saw improvements on all EOC test scores including over 10% gains in Biology and U.S. History. An after-school tutoring program, Extra Mann Power with bus transportation and National Honor Society peer tutoring created a significant drop of 9th grade failures. Mann continues to recognize outstanding performance on AP exams with the AP Hall of Fame plaques for the ninety-nine students who were recognized as AP Scholars.

The fruits of Mann's educational labors continued to shine outside the classroom this year. As a magnet school for technology, involvement in the Nationally Certified program, Project Lead the Way, allowed students the opportunity of college credits through PLTW coursework. The Art Department continues to attract the finest talent in the area, and once again won Greenville's "Open Studio Art Award". In the fall, PTSA sponsored again the program "Challenge Day" for over 300 students, which was aimed at breaking down barriers among students and promoting diversity and acceptance. The PTSA also provided $20,000 for the class needs of J.L. Mann teachers. J.L. Mann's Talisman yearbook was selected the top yearbook in the state and received numerous awards this school year. Patriot Pride was clearly present during 2012-2013 among the student body outlasting rival Greenville during Spirit Week with $117,367 for Project Hope, Challenge Day, and Mann Power transportation. Mann's athletic teams proved how competitive they were as they entered their third year as a 4A school finishing third in the 4A Athletic Director's Cup. Both Girls' Lacrosse and Girls' Track brought home State Championships.

With all the valuable strides J.L. Mann has made over the years and with the continual strive towards constant improvement, the school is ready to meet the challenges of the next 50 years with innovation and enthusiasm!

Charles S. Mayfield, Principal and Suzanne Foody, SIC Chair
