Sumter High School is a National Model School and a High Schools That Work award winner. These honors place Sumter High among the best schools in the nation. Educational leaders from across the state and region have visited Sumter High to observe our curriculum, and staff members from our school have made presentations across the country. We believe this validates our claim to excellence.

Athletic teams at Sumter High won five region titles and individually contained over 30 scholar athletes and four North-South All Stars.

Our marching band program received numerous superior awards, and our band students won straight superiors in jazz band and in symphonic band contests. Our choir and strings programs performed all over South Carolina and won many accolades and awards. The Sumter High drama program performed dozens of shows, and has been invited to perform in Scotland in August of 2013 for an international competition. Our art programs continue to garner awards, and we hosted two student art competitions.

Sumter High graduates have excelled in post-secondary endeavors, and this year's graduating class possesses much talent as well. Our seniors include 15 Palmetto Fellows, 200 Life Scholarship winners, and one student posted a perfect score on the verbal and math portions of the SAT entrance exam. Forty-one students were awarded the prestigious International Baccalaureate Diploma or Certificate.

Sumter High continues to move ahead. More Sumter High students passed the state exit exam on the first attempt than ever before. Our Advance Placement students exceeded the national average passing rate. Our International Baccalaureate students bested the international rate for exam scores. Our students showed an improvement of ten points on our Scholastic Aptitude Tests, and we are at the national average in verbal.
