REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Horry County Schools has experienced its most successful year in history.

Socastee High's Jennifer Ainsworth was named the SC Teacher of the Year. Homewood Elementary was named a Distinguished Title I School. Socastee Elementary is a nominee for the National Blue Ribbon Schools Award. Midland Elementary and Forestbrook Middle both won the prestigious Palmetto's Finest Award. Our District was recognized in the national Magna Awards program for our STEM initiative. HCS ranked as the State's highest performing countywide school system for grades issued for federal accountability. Schools earned 51 Palmetto Gold and Silver Awards. The NAMM Foundation listed HCS among the 2014 Best Communities for Music Education.

2013 SAT scores soared 30 points, yielding a composite of 1512, besting the national average by 14 points and the state average by 76. Our 2013 ACT scores had the highest one-year increase ever. At 20.8, our ACT composite is one-tenth of one point below the national average. HCS made the AP® District Honor Roll for gains in exam participation and performance. The Class of 2014 earned $60 million in scholarships. Among our 2,264 graduates, 79 percent are continuing to their education with the added-value of having earned 1,870 dual-credit courses.

HCS swept events sponsored by the S.C. Bar. Forestbrook Middle and North Myrtle Beach High won State Mock Trial Championships. Carolina Forest High and the Early College High School won both State Championships for We the People. Early College was named High School of the Year and Norman McQueen of the Scholars Academy was named Citizen of the Year. Forestbrook Middle advanced to win the Battle of the Carolinas Mock Trial event; North Myrtle Beach High placed second in national competition.

HCS is launching its second year of one-on-one devices, empowering teachers to customize student learning with digital content and adaptive technologies. Our students' eagerness for technology is illustrated with a 400 percent increase in participation of the HCS Technology Fair and our competitiveness in robotics.

With your support we have enjoyed our most successful year in history. Please join us in the work to make each year our best ever.
