REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Johnsonville Elementary School had a fulfilling 2013/2014 school year.

Our students continue to excel each and every year. The Duke University Talent Search recognized 4th grade students this past year for their academic excellence. Excellence continues with our students through their character building activities throughout the year. Our "Sparks" worked hard in helping with causes such as St. Jude's Children's Hospital, Johnsonville Fire Department, food drives for Caring and Sharing, Breast Cancer Awareness and clothes drives. The generosity of our students and community has been phenomenal.

Excellence is also noted in the accomplishments of our teachers. Three teachers received their recertification for National Board Certification. Another teacher is president of SC2 and represented the east region at the National Science Conference. Our teachers have been working diligently with Core Curriculum through our teacher inservices - "Teach Like a Pirate" is our theme.

Without the support of a great community, parents, and volunteers, Johnsonville Elementary would not excel as it does. A sound curriculum, an outstanding faculty and staff, and an exceptional student body all aid in making JES the great school that it is.
