REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

League Academy of Communication Arts was named a National "School to Watch" in March of 2011, and this prestigious award has launched us forward into even more possibilities. Our motto of "Hands on Today, Eyes on Tomorrow," and our mission statement of "Challenge – Create – Communicate!" truly describe our school in just a few words. League is an exciting place to teach and learn. League is a magnet school with a student body of almost 800 students, comprised of about two thirds home-based students and one third magnet students. Our poverty index is a little over 50%. Our diversity lies in many areas: ethnicity, socio-economics, educational experiences, and life experiences and opportunities, which makes League a melting pot of life experiences. It also creates a unique task for our teachers to work to move ALL students forward in their educational journey. We continue to work to raise the academic challenge and performance for each student at League and to provide a school environment supportive of learning, all the while striving to integrate a high quality arts program into our curriculum.

Our longitudinal PASS scores in ELA and MATH show a continued increase in the number of students meeting or exceeding standard. Our professional staff has qualified teachers and staff members. We have increased involvement in our PTA and our School Improvement Council. The PTA and SIC members have worked together to secure a crossing guard and a new crosswalk for our students to ensure their safety as they enter and leave our campus. Through the SIC, the "Dr. Richard Maag Arts Integration Award" was given to a teacher for the use of exceptional arts integration practices.

As we worked through the National Schools to Watch school improvement process, we realized that League has a long history of "firsts," including the first middle school in GCS to win the "Palmetto's Finest Award" in 1981, the first middle school in GCS to win the "National Blue Ribbon Award" in 1982, the first GCS middle school to win the "Red Carpet Award" in 2005 and the first middle school in GCS to become a "School to Watch." What a history of excellence! We began the first middle school W.A.T.C.H. Dog program, designed to bring dads into the school. These things have not happened by accident. We train constantly using data to drive our instruction, using teachers' expertise and leadership in hiring staff members, using quality instructional strategies learned through Learning-Focused training and the use of Baldrige Quality tools and using technology and arts to push our staff and students forward. During the 13-14 school year, our students were recognized at the school, district, state and national level for their work in academic areas and in the arts. Our showcases in dance, drama, art, strings, band and choral work are truly extraordinary.

Our school portfolio is a dynamic school improvement plan that guides our work. Our mission, vision and goals are stated and are used to help raise student achievement. Please visit our website at <http://greenville.k12.sc.us/league> to learn more about League. "Challenge – Create – Communicate!" is what we will continue to do!
