South Carolina State Report Card

State and federal laws require public schools to release report cards to the public each year. This year, the report card has been updated to reflect changes in reporting directed by the SC Education Oversight Committee. Schools will not be rated for state accountability purposes until Fall 2017 when the state will transition to a single accountability system. The following reports student performance in school year 2014-15.

Horrell Hill Elementary School is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the Graduate by incorporating research-proven strategies in the classroom, interventions and extra-curricular activities. Horrell Hill Elementary is a Professional Development School in partnership with the University of South Carolina – Columbia in Richland County School District One. Our school is situated in a rural community in Hopkins, South Carolina. We serve over 600 students, which places us in the category of one of the largest elementary school in our district. Our diverse student body makes Horrell Hill Elementary a great place to teach and learn. We are Horrell Hill Elementary School, a leader in transforming lives through education, empowering all students to achieve their potential and dream.

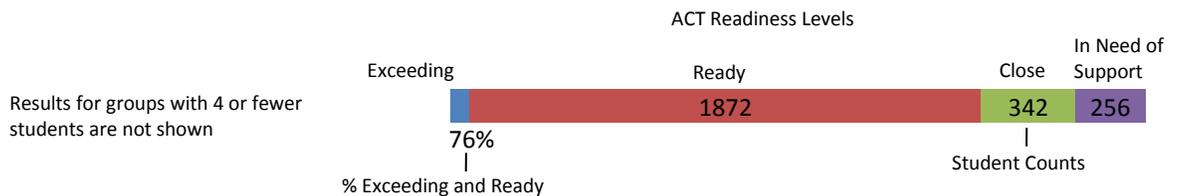

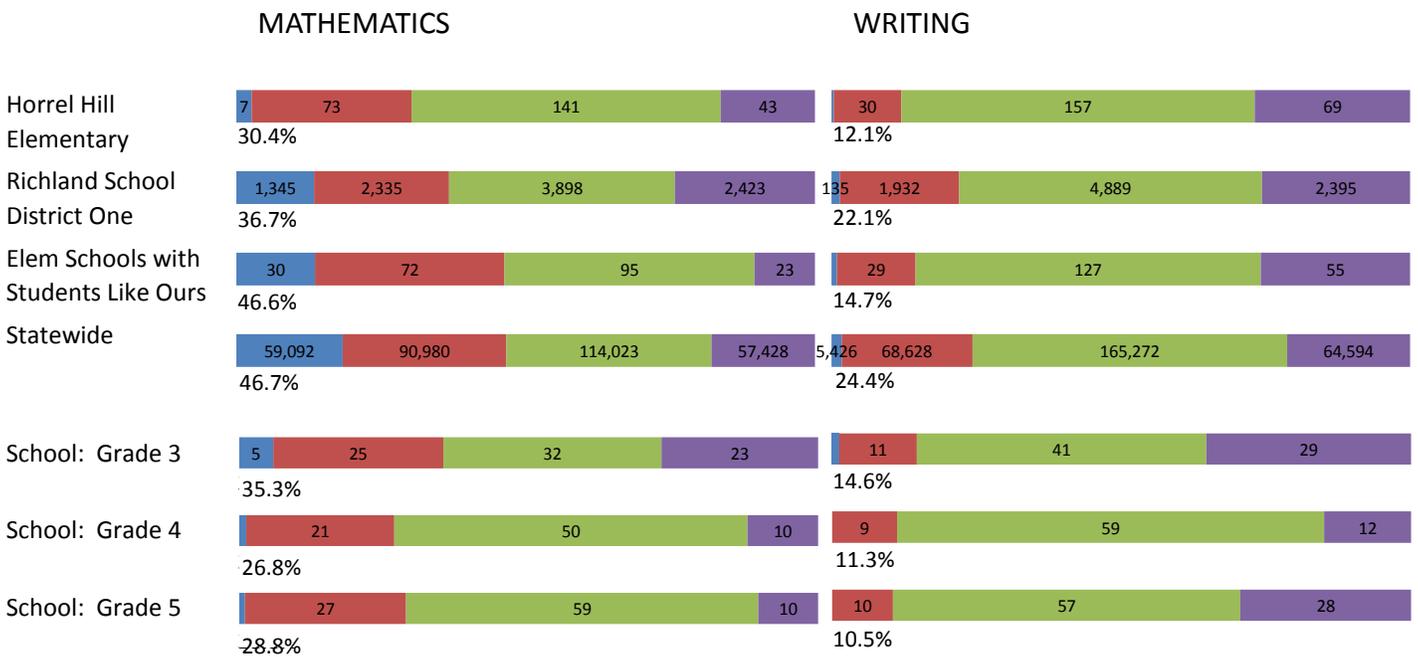

Student learning continues to be the primary focus of our existence. Our faculty and staff believe success for all who enter our building for 21st century learning experiences. Horrell Hill Elementary School was recognized for the Hour of Code for the state of South Carolina. Our school received $10,000.00 to support our digital learning environment for students in pre-kindergarten through grade five.

The faculty and staff work diligently to collect, analyze and interpret data to inform teaching and learning for every child. At Horrell Hill Elementary School, education is a team effort, therefore, grade-level teams meet weekly and participate in professional learning communities in order to support student learning, parental and community involvement. Students showcase their learning at Grade-Level PTO Curriculum Nights, International Cultures Expo, Academic Celebrations and Family Literacy Nights. Students at Horrell Hill Elementary School have numerous opportunities to participate in leadership events that reinforce goal-setting while leading and learning in classrooms. We are proud to offer our students in Pre-Kindergarten through Grade 5 an opportunity to serve as Student Council members. This year our Student Council members had an opportunity to meet Kid President and participate in a Book Study that helped them to recognize their awesomeness at home, school, and community. Our students also have opportunities to participate as Duke Tip Scholars and charter members of our 2015 Junior Beta Club.

Horrell Hill Elementary School looks forward to our continued success.
