

Mapping Your Future Transition Conference Register Today for Able SC's 5th Annual Transition Conference for Young Adults with Disabilities in Transition and their Parents

Saturday, February 17, 2018:
River Center at Saluda Shoals - Columbia, SC

9:00 AM – 12:30 PM: Morning Conference
Youth in Middle or High School and their Family Members

1:00 AM – 4:30 PM: Afternoon Conference
Young Adults No Longer in High School

Keynote Address: Ari Ne'eman, co-founder of The Autistic Self Advocacy Network and fierce disability rights advocate

Mapping Your Future is a FREE event to learn about navigating the transition from school to employment, independent living, and further education. Connect with the community service providers that are there to support you every step of the way!

Youth with disabilities in transition and up to two family members are invited to select which half of the day fits their needs and join us for some fantastic content!

For more information or to register, visit www.able-sc.org/myf

Mapping Your Future 2018 is made possible through support from:

