

South Carolina Educator Preparation Guidelines: Standards, Policies, and Procedures

Specialty Area Program Approval Standards

Section 59-26-20 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976, establishes the authority of the State Board of Education (SBE), through the State Department of Education (SCDE), and in consultation with the Commission on Higher Education, to adopt standards, policies, and procedures for the approval of preparation programs leading to the certification of educators. Specifically, the SBE is authorized to adopt standards for specialty area programs that support providers in developing preparation programs and facilitate the initial and continuing review and approval processes. For the purpose of these guidelines, a specialty area program is defined as one preparing a candidate for issuance of an educator credential in a specific certification field and associated grade span.

For initial and continuing approval, specialty area programs must demonstrate the capacity to prepare teachers, service personnel, and school and district leaders who will be effective in professional practice. In most instances, the specialty area program standards adopted by the SBE are those of the specialized professional association (SPA) for the content area. In some instances, however, the standards adopted by the SBE are those of a national specialized accreditation agency. For additional specialty areas, including those for which no SPA or accrediting agency exists, the SCDE will work with preparation program faculty and content-area specialists to develop standards for SBE approval.

The SBE has adopted the following specialty area standards for both initial and continuing approval of educator preparation programs. Unless otherwise indicated, educator preparation providers must use the most recent, approved version of the standards listed below in the development of new program proposals and for program review purposes.
