DISTANCE EDUCATION APPROVED CURRICULA

2018-2019

Adult Education programs may use any distance education software that is approved by the local district. If the distance education software is used to collect attendance hours the software must have time and date stamp capability. The following distance education curricula have been approved.

Distance Education Approved Curricula

- Acellus
- Achieve3000
- ALEKS Prep for GED Mathematics (McGraw Hill)
- Apex Learning
- Aztec GED Prep (Aztec Software)
- Burlington English
- Career Ready 101 (ACT)
- ConnectED (McGraw Hill)
- Edgenuity
- Edmentum
- EdReady
- GED Academy (Essential Education) – all courses but Computer Essentials
- Grad Point (Pearson)
- HMHeLe (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt HMH eLearning Environment)
- KET Fast Forward
- Khan Academy
- Key Train (ACT)
- Odysseyware
- PLATO (PLATO Learning Environment)
- Rosetta Stone
- Rosetta Stone Foundations
- Skills Tutor (Houghton Mifflin Harcourt)
- Spark3000
- Tell Me More (Auralog)
- Townsend Press’s Online Learning Center
- VirtualSC (VSC)
- Worldwide Interactive Network (WIN) for Learning

Students enrolled in VirtualSC credit-bearing courses are recommended to have a TABE reading pre-test scale score at or above 567.