RE: Women's Leadership Webinar—Managing Time and Finding Balance

March is Women's History Month. To celebrate and to respond to the questions we frequently receive about sustainability and balance, particularly from women in leadership roles, the Office of Educator Effectiveness and Leadership Development will offer a free professional learning opportunity focused on women in leadership.

This 90-minute session will include a webinar about balancing the responsibilities of work, a panel addressing common challenges, and time to connect with other colleagues. Our goal is to assist women in leadership roles, and those who care about sustaining those women, by providing time to share strategies.

Redeeming the time: Managing time and Finding Balance will occur on Thursday, March 28, 2024 from 1:00 pm–2:30 pm. Registration is available here or at this address: <http://tinyurl.com/MarchWomensWebinar24>. If you have additional questions, please contact Keasha Grant, ksgrant@ed.sc.gov.
