Career Technical Education (CTE) Profile

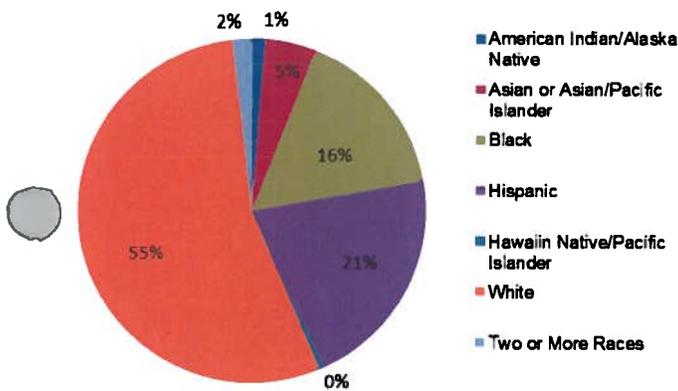

Career and Technical Education (CTE) in the United States is administered by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Career, Technical, and Adult Education through funding allocated to states and authorized by the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006. All 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. territories rely on this funding, as well as state and local investment, to support secondary, postsecondary, and adult CTE programs. CTE programs prepare students for college and careers.

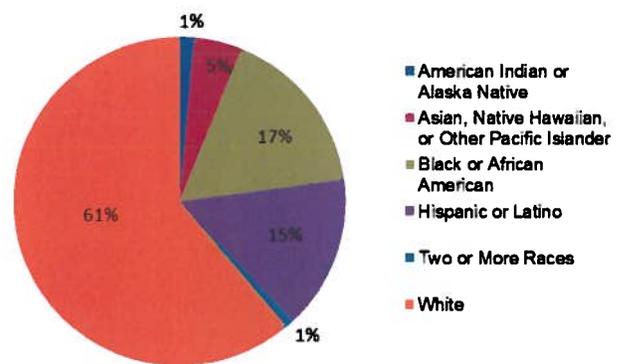

Enrollment

In FY 2012, 7,273,204 secondary and 4,406,814 postsecondary students participated in CTE. At the secondary level, 47% were female and 53% were male. At the postsecondary level, 54% were female and 46% were male.
