On August 3, 2015, Ms. Downs sent a letter informing SCDE that she was unable to attend a hearing. Based on further discussions with Ms. Downs, she agreed to waive her right to a hearing in this matter. After considering the information presented by the SCDE, the State Board voted to issue this Order of Public Reprimand.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Ms. Downs holds a valid South Carolina professional educator certificate and has seven (7) years of teaching experience. She has no prior record of disciplinary action with the State Board. Except for 2012 when she worked in Laurens County School District 55, Ms. Downs was employed by Newberry County School District (District) from 2006 until her resignation on February 20, 2015, as a Lower Elementary Montessori Teacher at Newberry Elementary School (School). On February 13, 2015, Ms. Downs was suspected of being under the influence of alcohol in the workplace. Ms. Downs ultimately admitted to consuming three (3) beers and wine throughout the night prior to coming to work. February 13, 2015 was a staff development day and no students were at the school. Ms. Downs refused to submit to a blood-alcohol screening. As a result of this incident and Ms. Downs' failure to submit to a blood-alcohol screening, Ms. Downs was offered the opportunity to resign on the same day. Ms. Downs requested time to draft her letter of resignation, which she submitted to the District on February 20, 2015, effective immediately.

Code Ann. § 59-2-160 (Rev. 2004). The State Board finds that the evidence presented, which is undisputed by Ms. Downs, demonstrates that Ms. Downs engaged in unprofessional conduct, as a result of poor judgment by reporting to work under the influence of alcohol that just cause exists to publicly reprimand Ms. Downs.
