District Superintendent's Report

Since my arrival in January 2008, the Consolidated School District of Aiken County has continued to exceed expectations with a host of 2007-08 successes and accolades. We are the fifth largest school district in South Carolina with approximately 25,000 students enrolled in 42 schools. The district is divided into five attendance areas serving students in Aiken County and a portion of Saluda County.

Our reading initiative goal is to have all primary grade students reading at grade level by 2010. We are focused on "High Schools That Work," an initiative that calls for rigor and relevance in the high school curriculum in order to prepare graduates for post secondary employment.

In 2007-08, the district continued its mission of academic excellence. Schools throughout the district received state and national recognition for outstanding achievement. Four of our schools- Jefferson Elementary, J.D. Lever Elementary, A. L. Corbett Middle, and Silver Bluff High, were recognized as South Carolina Red Carpet Schools. Aiken Elementary won the Carolina First Palmetto's Finest Award for the second time. Newsweek Magazine once again cited South Aiken High School as one of "America's Best High Schools." Several of our high school NJROTC cadets won state and national acclaim in drill, rifle, and academic team competitions. District FFA programs and Aiken County Career and Technology Center students received numerous first place state awards for career and vocational competitions. Our graduates continued to excel by receiving approximately $29,109,073 million in scholarships for post-secondary education.

Our dedication to safe and functional facilities continues. The long-awaited completion of new Byrd Elementary ($17.6 million) and a major addition to Millbrook Elementary ($5.9 million) will welcome students for the 2008-09 school year. Approximately $2.3 million was spent on cyclic maintenance needs (roofs, flooring, painting, HVAC) to manage continuous upkeep of the schools. Our transportation program welcomed 9 new school buses and our high schools will have use of 5 new activity buses to safely transport our athletic and academic groups to events around the southeast.

Aiken County School District looks forward to another year of record-setting academic performance and student achievement. Together, with parental involvement and community support, the district will achieve enormous yet attainable benchmarks in Aiken County's education system.

Elizabeth Everitt, Ph.D.
 Superintendent
