District Superintendent's Report

Sumter School District 17 includes 7 elementary schools, four middle schools, one high school, an alternative learning center, and the Early Head Start program. In addition, our district offers choice opportunities, which include the Magnet School for the Fine Arts and Technology, the Science Connections Magnet School, the Sixth Grade Oaks Academy, the School for Inquiry, and the IB Middle Years Programme.

This year, our schools and educators were recognized at the national and state levels for helping to change the lives of children. The Director of Sumter High School's award winning choral program won the prestigious Milken Family Foundation National Educator Award and its accompanying financial prize of $25,000. Eleven teachers in Sumter School District 17 achieved National Board Certification. Sumter High School Class of 2008 earned over $7.8 million in merit-based scholarships, including 2 Robert C. Byrd Scholarship winners, 20 Palmetto Fellows, one National Achievement Scholarship winner and three finalists, one National Merit finalist, and two students with 12 years of perfect attendance. In addition, 28 of our middle school students were named South Carolina Junior Scholars, Croswell Drive Elementary earned the Palmetto Silver Award, and Alice Drive Elementary was named a Red Carpet School. The quality of our academic programs continues to attract newcomers to the Sumter community, as well as experienced and accomplished teachers and administrators.

District 17 continues to expand initiatives to help improve test scores across the district by building upon our areas of success and working as a team to improve our educational challenges. In an effort to improve test scores and continue making gains, the district utilizes the MAP and Classworks programs, strong literacy initiatives, math institutes, after school programs, and extensive professional development opportunities.

Sumter School District 17 has a long history of success that will continue to be a source of pride for our community. Only with the support of parents, elected officials, business leaders, entrepreneurs, volunteers, faith-based groups, and others have we been able to accomplish so much. We thank you for your continued support.

Zona W. Jefferson, Ph.D., Superintendent
