Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

T. L. Hanna High School is located in a growing area of Anderson, South Carolina. The school has a strong tradition of academic excellence. The diverse student body is approaching 1800 students.

The strengths of the school include rigorous and challenging coursework to meet the needs of all students, access to technology, a variety of school-to-work opportunities, an emphasis on improving school culture and parent communication, strong parent and community support, and a highly qualified teaching staff.

Our challenges are to continue to raise student achievement and prepare students for college entrance and entry into the workforce. This includes meeting the needs of an increasing number of students who speak English as a second language.

We have received both the nation's and state's highest awards. The United States Department of Education named T. L. Hanna a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence. The South Carolina State Department of Education awarded our school Carolina First's "Palmetto's Finest" designation. The College Board awarded our school a national honor in 2007 with the "Siemens Advanced Placement Award," recognizing the school for its success on Advanced Placement tests. We have also been named a "Flagship of Promise," a Gold Medallion winner for our state report card results.

Our award-winning school provides programs for a variety of student needs and interests. Our Speech and Debate team has been named to the National Forensic League's "200 Club," a designation presented to the top 5% of teams in the nation. Our T. L. Hanna Band has excelled in competition, culminating with receiving the Grand Championship in the Rex Parade in New Orleans, Louisiana, during Mardi Gras.

Our focus this year has been on improving the culture of the school through increased parent communication and engaging student activities. Our outstanding student body, faculty, and parental and community support are what make our school the "High School of Excellence."
