Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

Gaffney High School experienced a year of change and growth. Our theme this year, Mission 008: The Challenge to Change, reflected the idea of change and its impact on all aspects of school life. All around us, change was evident. A new state-of-the-art stadium and track facility and a two-story ninth-grade academy building under construction bore visual testimony that our physical environment is changing. A new principal and three other new administrators, along with twenty new staff members, added to the excitement of change. Each year, a new group of ninth graders begins the journey to graduation. Their anticipation and nervous energy spreads to everyone and encourages all to join in the adventure of a new school year with renewed enthusiasm. We were also a site for a SREB High Schools That Work visit in February. Preparation for that event was beneficial in helping us review our strengths and needs for improvement. The challenges presented to us by the visiting committee have laid the foundation for improvement for the coming year.

The most important aspect of Gaffney High School, indeed any high school, is our student population. We are fortunate to have a diverse and multi-talented student body. Our student achievement for 2007-2008 included a Merit Scholar, one hundred eighty-one Life Scholarship qualifiers, six seniors who received 12 years Perfect Attendance citations, choral participation in a national competition in Nashville, AFJROTC Outstanding Unit for the sixth year in a row, and activities ranging from golf to band to writing competitions. Our students are faced with the difficult challenge of meeting ever-increasing score standards on local, state, and national tests. We are focusing on earlier interventions to help students whose skills are weak to receive extra instruction to boost those skills and the students' confidence.

Our faculty has been wonderfully supportive of the changes this year. Their achievements include a State Spanish Teacher of the Year, Distinguished AFJROTC Instructor designations, and a Region Golf Coach of the Year. The behind-the-scenes work to help students graduate on time or to master material is often not recognized but is greatly appreciated here. As we move forward, whether to new quarters or new subject areas, Gaffney High is prepared to meet the challenges.
