REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

For the seventh year in a row, Waccamaw High received a Palmetto Gold Award based on the State of South Carolina School Report Card. The school is a Red Carpet School award winner, was named the Student Council of the Year for the fourth consecutive year, and won the prestigious Palmetto's Finest School Award in 2008. Students are provided a challenging curriculum that includes seven Advanced Placement offerings, six PACE - Program for Accelerated College Enrollment, Honors, College Prep, and Tech Prep, SAT/ACT Prep programs, and is now an International Baccalaureate school.

WHS is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Our focal point continues to be student academic achievement through the research-based work of Robert Marzano, in the area of best practices and Differentiated Instruction. The school continues to monitor and examine data to use for planning instruction and to meet the needs of all students. Many of our teachers have completed the training for the International Baccalaureate Program, and 78.6% of the teaching staff have advanced degrees. Our Teaching and Learning System is a framework to assist teachers in aligning SC State Standards, assessing students' mastery of objectives, identifying areas of concern and completed objectives.

For 2007, the SAT composite scores were 1017, and the ACT Average was 20.7, which places our school at above the District, State and National averages. Ninety-seven percent of our students passed the HSAP on the first attempt (97.3/ELA, 96.2%/Math). Just under 38% percent of the senior class qualified for Life Scholarships. Their entire class's scholarships totaled 3.69 million dollars. WHS students participate in numerous extra-curricular, co-curricular, service projects, and community organizations. In 2007-2008, our athletic teams have won 10 Region Championships, two State Championships, and one State Runner-Up. Our Band, Art, Drama, and Choral Departments continue to shine with awards and commendations. The Competitive Cheer Team finished tenth in state competition. The academic teams have also excelled at district, regional, state, and national competitions. There is a strong link between Waccamaw High School and the community; and we will continue to nurture this unique partnership.
