REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

In order to fulfill its vision "Whatever It Takes – Every Student Counts," Lee Central High School provided students with a variety of academic programs and extracurricular activities. The 2007-2008 school year marked the first year of implementation of the 8.5 Transition Program at Lee Central High School. Additionally, the number of students enrolled in a variety of advanced placement courses increased. Lee Central High School received the Education and Economic Development Act and At-Risk Student Committee Nine Schools Project Grant for planning and professional development – Drop-Out Prevention Programs' Grant - ($10,000), The Families Connection Grant, High Schools That Work Grant – ($5,500), and the Teen Lead Grant – ($5,000). In addition, Lee Central High School is a South Carolina Algebra Project Recipient for the 2008-2009 school year.

As part of the High Schools That Work initiative, Lee Central High School implemented a comprehensive system of extra help for students. All teachers provided tutorials. Additionally, the lead teacher for The Homework Center scheduled afterschool tutorials for HSAP and EOC. Students also utilized NovaNet for course mastery as well as credit recovery for attendance. Students were required to read three books per classroom.

Students at Lee Central High School had the opportunity to participate in a variety of extracurricular activities. The JROTC cadets were awarded the Honor Unit of Distinction. Two students received a perfect score on the English I EOC. One student was selected as a member of the 2008 South Carolina All-State Chorus and another student for the 2008 Region 5 Clinic Honor Band. A faculty member was awarded the South Carolina Athletic Associations' Coach of the Year for Girls' Basketball for all classifications (overall) and the 2007 South Sectional Coach of the Year Award for Girls' Basketball.

We recognize that all of our stakeholders are a key component to the success of Lee Central High School. Parents, community members, and ministerial and business partners participated in the Academic Booster Club, School Improvement Council, and various other Booster Clubs. The Guidance Department, Curriculum Leadership Team, and Administrators coordinated several programs including but not limited to parent coffees and Financial Aid Workshops, which increased parental involvement.
