REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Seneca High School demonstrated "Excellence in Academics, Arts, and Athletics" during the 2007-2008 school year.

Seneca High School is very proud of the accomplishments of our school. In June, 205 seniors graduated from Seneca High School. Six students received state academic diplomas meeting the criteria of completing 22 units of high school credit, meeting the standard on all subtests of the High School Assessment Program (HSAP) test. One senior received the prestigious National Merit Scholarship, marking the second year in a row that a student at Seneca High School has received this scholarship. Twelve students received Palmetto fellowships, and 77 seniors qualified for the Life Scholarship. Thirty-seven seniors received honor cords. The graduating class of 2008 received over 3.67 million dollars in scholarships.

The Fine Arts Department continues to be recognized as one of the finest in the state. The art classes hosted visiting artist Jeremiah Miller who painted a mural upstairs. The band, choral, and strings programs competed throughout the state and were successful. The Seneca High School Honors Chorale captured 1st place in the AAA division at the South Carolina Music Educator's Choral Festival in Columbia. Thirty-eight students were named to All-State chorus. Band, strings, and choral students participated in All-County programs.

Seneca High School's Mock Trial competed at the state level for the first time. In addition, Seneca High School renewed its membership with the National Honor Society and inducted seventy-seven students in grades 10-12 into this prestigious service organization.

Seneca High completed its first year with a Freshman Academy. Students and teachers worked in a smaller learning community, easing the transition from middle school to high school. Students were teamed with a group of 4 core teachers (math, science, social studies, and English). Students also participated in a High School 102 course which taught study and success skills. A focus was also given to career exploration including career interest inventories, guest speakers, and a tour of the district's Career Center.

Two teachers received the prestigious National Board Certification, and Seneca High's athletics continue to excel. Students in football, baseball, softball, and track competed at the state level.

Seneca High School renewed its Red Carpet status. Seneca High received its initial Red Carpet during the 2004 school year. The Red Carpet was awarded because Seneca High continues to demonstrate an environment that is open and inviting to parents and visitors. We are proud of our school's accomplishments.
